Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound

The procedures for taking the Eucharist to the homebound have changed. Instead of getting the host in the communion procession, you are now asked to come forward at the conclusion of Mass and Father Miller, Deacon Nick, or Nick Perkoski will go to the tabernacle and place the host(s) in your pyx. If you need a pyx, we have extras in the sacristy. As a reminder, when you leave the church, you should go directly to the homebound person(s) and distribute communion.

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Stewardship “And Mary said, “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.” Luke 1:46 After Jesus, we look to Mary as our model of stewardship. Her entire life was lived in obedience to God’s will. Just as the moon reflects the light of the sun, Mary reflects the light of Christ. Like Mary, we too are called to reflect Christ to the world. We do this by living grateful and generous lives. We do this by putting other’s needs before our wants.

Vocations: “My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord; ...” Are you discerning a vocation to proclaim the greatness of the Lord as a priest or consecrated religious? Email Father Scott Kopp at skopp@youngstowndiocese.org or call 330/744-8451.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

My parish is composed of people like me;
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
It will be holy, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will be prayerful, if I pray.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship,
if I invite and bring them.
It will be a parish of loyalty and love,
of fearlessness and faith, if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with Your help, O God,
I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.
