Eucharistic Ministers to the Homebound

The procedures for taking the Eucharist to the homebound have changed. Instead of getting the host in the communion procession, you are now asked to come forward at the conclusion of Mass and Father Miller, Deacon Nick, or Nick Perkoski will go to the tabernacle and place the host(s) in your pyx. If you need a pyx, we have extras in the sacristy. As a reminder, when you leave the church, you should go directly to the homebound person(s) and distribute communion.

Stewardship Update

Sunday $5,874

84 Envelopes 4 On-Line

Thank you for your continued generosity!

Stewardship “Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not.” EXODUS 16:4 When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego lead to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our “wants” from our “needs”. Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

Vocations: “Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that endures for eternal life.” Are you being chosen to help feed and give life to the people of God as a priest, deacon or in the consecrated life? Contact Father Scott Kopp at 330/744-8451 or email: skopp@youngstowndiocese.org

Deacon Nick will be starting a Parish Catholic Men’s Fellowship Group in September. If you desire to grow closer in your relationship with God and other men in our parish, please contact Deacon Nick at niarocci@youngstowndiocese.org or call the Parish Office at 599-8570. “Iron is sharpened by iron; Man is sharpened by man.” Prov. 27:17.

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

My parish is composed of people like me;
I help make it what it is.
It will be friendly, if I am.
It will be holy, if I am.
Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them.
It will do great work, if I work.
It will be prayerful, if I pray.
It will make generous gifts to many causes,
if I am a generous giver.
It will bring other people into its worship and fellowship,
if I invite and bring them.
It will be a parish of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, if I, who make it what it is,
am filled with these same things.
Therefore, with Your help, O God,
I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all things that I want my parish to be.
