“Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” In the last year in our nation over 100 pro-life organizations, pregnancy centers and churches have been vandalized by pro-abortion individuals or groups. Standing up for life can make one unpopular. May those who champion the righteous cause of advocating and caring for all human life at all stages and in all circumstances never cower in the face of persecution.

“Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.” MATTHEW 5:3

The phrase “poor in spirit” can be confusing. Think of it in this sense – poor in spirit means depending on God’s providence and not depending on our own self-reliance. Being detached from earthly things (power, money, and comfort) and being attached to heavenly things (charity, sacrifice, and mercy). Denying ourselves from satisfying our desires and helping others obtain their basic needs.
